It is the responsibility of each member/applicant to maintain liaison with SOHL through its two designated representatives. The two designated representatives on record with SOHL will be the only persons who may vote on behalf of a Regular Member organization. SOHL will send all communications and notices intended for the Regular Member to such designated representatives. A member may change its designated representatives, but such change becomes effective only when the SOHL Office receives written notice of the change signed by the President of the Regular Member organization. Each organization/individual is required to notify the SOHL office of any changes in address, phone/fax or email numbers or if the name of the organization has changed.
